

Thursday 1 November
8.30 am	Registration opens
9.00 am	Welcome by conference chair Professor Iain White and University of Waikato Emeritus Professor Richard (Dick) Bedford QSO, FRSNZ
9.15 am	Powhiri and welcome
9.30 am	Keynote speaker: Professor Nicole Gurran
10.30 am	Morning tea
10.45 am	Session 1 Planning and decision making <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Iain White & Pip Wallace, Why don't we get the things we want? Revealing the hidden logics of decision making 2. Simon Opit & Karen Witten. Creating space for innovation: Understanding the inertia within transport planning decision-making as a sociotechnical assemblage 3. Mirjam Schindler, Rita Dionisio-McHugh & Simon Kingham. The role of spatial planning tools in New Zealand's urban decision-making 4. Michael Grosvenor. It's the planners fault! How influential is the urban planning profession in urban development decision making today? 	Session Chair: TBC
12.15 pm	Lunch
1.15 pm	Panel Discussion: Planning and Housing – what are emerging research directions?	Panel: TBC
2.15 pm	Afternoon tea
2.45 pm	Session 2 Planning and equality <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Emma Fergusson. Diversity, pathology and responsibility: framing policy for areas of concentrated deprivation 2. Gauri Nandedkar & Iain White. Constructing a crisis: decoding housing frames in politics. 3. Khandakar Uddin & Awais Piracha, Cities within a city: The NSW planning policy divergence 4. Jason Harrison & Susan Thompson. Making the healthy city equitable: a case study of walkability and wayfinding for the visually impaired 	Session Chair: TBC
4.15 pm	Close
7.00 pm	Conference dinner – Location TBC	Self-funded
Friday 2 November
8.00 am	Heads of planning breakfast – on campus meet at Kahurangi Café in the Oranga building by the Lake (AKA 'Stacey's')	Self-funded
9.00 am	Keynote speaker: Professor Jago Dodson

10.00 am	Morning tea
10.30 am	Session 3 Planning for the Environment and Climate Change <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Rebecca Retzlaff & Charlene LeBleu. Marine spatial planning: exploring the role of planning practice and research 2. Christina Hanna, Iain White & Bruce Glavovic. National guidance, RMA tools and voluntary retreat: lessons from Matata, New Zealand 3. Michael Howes. Preparing planners for climate change adaptation decision-making: observations from the policy research-teaching nexus 4. Hamish Rennie. Micro-planning for resilience – a resilience module for Farm Environment Plans 	Session Chair: TBC
12.00 pm	Lunch Parallel Early Career Researcher Networking meeting
1.00 pm	Session 4: Planning, people, and heritage <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Mark Dyer, Rachel Dyer, Annika Hinze, Tomas Ferrari, Kate Mackness & Shaoqun Wu. Urban Narrative 2. George Greiss & Awais Piracha. Re-writing political influence: The NSW “Rock Star” planning reforms 3. Tung, Chih-Hsuan & Cheng, Hsien-Hsin. A study on the urban morphology evolution of ancient city wall along the urban fringe belt – A case study of Tainan castle town 4. Lo, Wei-Hsuan & Cheng, Hsien-Hsin. The Study of heritage for conservation strategy – historic urban landscape approach for Tainan Fu-Cheng historic districts 	Session Chair: TBC
2.30 pm	Afternoon tea
2.45 pm	Session 5: The Pedagogy of Planning <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Aysin Dedekorkut-Howes, Jason Byrne, Deanna Tomerini & Alison Sammel. Taking students on a field trip towards employment 2. Adrienne Keane & Peter Phibbs. Developing student engagement with Indigenous Australians through urban planning curricula 3. Dorina Pojani, Role Playing vs serious gaming in planning education: Which activity leads to more learning? 	Session Chair: TBC

	4. Claire Freeman, Learning how to make decisions in the education context
4.15 pm	Panel Discussion: The Future of Planning Curriculums.	Panel TBC
5.15 pm	Next steps and close
5.30 pm	Close
Saturday 3 November
9.00 am	9.00 Pick up at University 9.15 Pick up outside Novotel in Hamilton 10.00 Guided tour of Maungatautari 1.00 Lunch at Karapiro 2.00 return to Hamilton 2.30 drop off back at City Centre 2.45 drop off at University	Self-funded: $35 dollars for the guided tour plus buy own lunch